THE
LINCOLN
CALENDAR

Abraham Lincoln

If all that has been said by orators and poets since the Creation in praise of woman was applied to the women of America, it would not do them full justice for their conduct during the war.

The mystic chords of memory, stretching from every battlefield and patriot grave to every lib-ing heart and hearthstone all over the broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the Union, broken again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angels of your nature.

By general law,
life and limb must
be protected, yet
often a limb must be amputated to save a life; but a
life is never given
merely to save a
limb.
